

A donation has been made in your name for a water Buffalo Project. Water buffalos provide milk, cheese and income to needy villagers in Pakistan. When calves are born, 50% of their value will be used to support the entire village, from clean water to sewing machines. This Rotary International Project promotes world peace and understanding.

From:

To:

